Leaving a balance against the farm of only one dollar, thirty-seven cents.

The improvements on the farm together with the growth of the wood and timber, is considered more than sufficient to pay the interest on the cost of said farm and furnishing the same, and deducting that amount from the current expenses of the year, would leave a ballance of 201,63 in favor of said town.

The number of Paupers and the time of their support is as follows :—

John Allen, 52 weeks; George Place, 52; Jane Place, 52; Catharine Linnehan, 6; Nancy Edwards, 41 weeks and 1 day; Robert Carter, 7 weeks and 4 days; Jane Lynch, 3 weeks 1 day; Fanny Jordan, 12 weeks 6 days; Henry Place, 31 weeks 4 days; Hannah Long, 3 weeks 4 days; Abednego Shorey, 20 weeks 2 days, Hannah Weeden, 10 weeks 1 day; Amanda Goodwin, 11 weeks 1 day; Charles Goodwin, 11 weeks 1 day; Edwin Goodwin, 11 weeks 1 day; Almira Doughty, 1 week; Nancy Burley, 1 week 2 days; Alexander Roberts, 8 weeks 6 days. Showing an aggregate of 340 weeks and 5 days.

Twenty-nine weeks of the above were for town paupers, and the remainder were County paupers and those belonging to other towns.

Remarks.

The Auditors have examined the Town Accounts from February 20, 1854, to February 20, 1855, and find the same correctly cast; but we cannot agree to the balance in the Treasury as reported by the Selectmen.

On the 20th of Feb., 1854, there appeared to have been a balance of cash in the hands of Mr. McCrillis, the then Treasurer, of 1708 39. Of this sum there was paid over to Mr. Emerson, his successor in office, 1221 68, in cash, or its equivalent, and 486 81 in the following bills which appear under the head of arrearages, viz :

Israel Chadbourne,	65 50
Wm. B. Smith,	25 75
E. S. Nowell,	15 00
Geo. Stevens,	15 14
Israel Chadbourne,	33 15
Cyrus Bachelder,	3 50
A McCrillis,	97 88
I. G. Jordan,	131 64
Isaac Pray,	5 13
A. McCrillis,	38 50
B. F. Hanson,	19 00
B. F. Hanson,	36 62
	<hr/>
	486 81

These bills, 425,31 is for expenses of criminal prosecutions in this State, against John Moore and Charles Curtis, which the Town never authorized. The prosecution against Michael Bean, for which Mr. Jordan charges 27,44, we are well assured was not carried on in behalf of the town;—and the charge of Mr. McCrillis, of 38,50 for attending to prosecution for violation of the license laws, was for services as Selectman, and therefore covered by his general bill settled since the date thereof. These sums, amounting to 463,81, are not, in our opinion, legal claims against the town, and the receipt of them from Mr. McCrillis, by his successor in office, in part of the balance in his hands, does not, as we believe, relieve him from his liability to the town to that amount. We therefore add the same to the balance reported by the Selectmen, thus increasing the amount in the treasury to 1543,55.

We recommend further investigation by a Committee appointed by the Town, with authority to take any measures respecting said charges that they may judge expedient.

Aside from the foregoing, the affairs of the town for the past year, appear to have been managed with prudence and economy.

Respectfully submitted, by

J. A. BURLEIGH,

CHAS. E. BARTLETT,

} Auditors.

Somersworth, Feb, 27, 1855.

Of these bills, $2,821 is for expenses of criminal prosecutions in this State, against John Moore and Charles Curtis, which the Town never authorized. The prosecution against Michael Hean, for which Mr. Jordan charges $7,44, was well rewarded was not carried on in behalf of the town;—and the charge of Mr. McCallin, of $2,50 for attending to prosecution for violation of the license laws, was for services as Schoolman, and therefore covered by his general bill settled with the State. These sums, amounting to $48,81 are not, in our opinion, legal claims against the town, and the receipt of them from Mr. McGillis, by him necessary in order to pay of the balance in his hands, does not as we believe relieve him from his liability to the town to that amount. We therefore add the same to the balance reported by the Selectmen, thus increasing the amount in the treasury to $148,81.

We recommend further investigation by a Committee appointed by the Town, with authority to take any measures respecting said charges that they may judge expedient. Aside from the foregoing, the affairs of the town for the past year appear to have been managed with prudence and economy. Respectfully submitted, by

J. A. BURNETT,
CHAR. H. BARNETT,
Auditors.
